

Violent 'Little Emperors': Children lashing out at parents to get own way

Consultant: Dr William Shanahan

Daily Mail, 11th July 2011, Sarah Harris

Dr William Shanahan, the Executive Medical Director and Lead Addictions Consultant at Capio Nightingale Hospital has spoken to The Daily Mail on the Rising violence in children's behavior.

Recent research has shown that approximately 11% of children under the age of 10 physically abuse their parents. Government statistics for the academic year 2008/09 also reveals that 7620 children from reception, year one and year two were given fixed term exclusion.

Dr Shanahan who helps parents who have lost control over their children shares his views on how parents unintentionally facilitate their children's bad behavior by indulging them too much. Please read full article
